

A New Suit Could Mean a New Job

With the help of St. Louis, MO Highway Patrolmen Tim McDonald and the late Roy Gillepsie, in partnership with Tailored Brands, Seton Center received several pallets of new men's suits, dress shirts, and ties to distribute to our clients.

It all began with a conversation with Sharon Fulson, then Chief of Staff for Missouri State Senator Kiki Curls. Sharon stopped by Seton Center to see if there was anything she could help with, which led to a discussion about the availability of men's suits for nonprofit organizations in Missouri. The connection was made, and the suits soon arrived.

The Covid-19 pandemic hit shortly after our first Suit Giveaway; however, a few weeks ago, we were able to hold our second Suit Giveaway through carefully spaced out appointments while adhering to CDC-advised Covid-19 precautions.

Thank you, Tailored Brands, Sharon, Tim, Roy, and volunteers, for your help in making a difference in the lives of 110 clients. Now they have a suit for when they want to dress up, but more importantly, for those times when they seek employment to better their lives and those of their families.
